1. Early in 1950 Communist authorities will move the main offices of the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications from Shanghai to Peiping. A local office in Shanghai will handle unfinished business there, and private shareholders will not be affected by the move.
2. The Communists have promised 16 seats for private shareholders when the new board of directors and the supervisory committee for the Bank of China are selected.
3. Early in January Communist authorities in Peiping were printing Jenminpiao (JMP) $5,000 denomination notes in green.
